OFFICE NOTE.

Subject.

Increase of pay to Pandit Ramakrishna Sastri, Vyakarana Teacher in H. H. the Maharaja's Sanskrit College at Mysore.

LAST REFERENCE:—

Petition ~~Letter~~ No. 1747 dated 1st November 1904, from Pandit Ramakrishna Sastri.

Pandit Ramakrishna Sastri, Vyakarana Teacher in H. H. the Maharaja's Sanskrit College at Mysore, has petitioned His Highness and the petition has been referred to this Office for disposal with the Private Secretary's Memo No. 1097, dated 5th November 1904.

The petitioner states that he passed the Vidwat Examination in Vyakarana from the Sanskrit College at Mysore in the year 1887-88, and was in the succeeding year appointed Vyakarana Teacher in the same College on Rs 8, as by His Highness; that in the year 1894 his pay was raised to Rs 15/- in consideration of the hard work rendered by him in the College; that from that time he was on the said pay along with Pandit Venkataramanachar, Krishnasastri and 2 others, till 1900, when all of them with the exception of himself having been appointed to teach 2 Translation classes newly opened in the College and to work for 3 extra hours from 2 to 5 P.M. daily, their pay was raised to Rs 20/-; that during the recent revision of the scale of Establishment of the College in January 1904, the pay of those adverted to above who were getting Rs 20/- was raised to Rs 25/-, (though they were relieved of the extra work) but that he alone for ~~precaution~~ Rs 18/-, ~~the~~ and prays that his pay may also be raised to Rs 25/- per mensem.

A printed copy of the order ~~on~~ revising the Establishment of H. H. the Maharaja's College is put up herewith for ready reference.

In the Revision Order of 20th January 1904, the Peshkar pay was raised from Rs 15 to Rs 18 as was done with others on the same pay. Again as an arrangement which has been very recently sanctioned, his pay has been further increased to Rs 20 along with others on Rs. 18. He has really no grievance and may be informed accordingly.
